
BBC LEARNING ENGLISH

Real Easy English

Work

This is a transcript of a spoken conversation and is not a word-for-word script.

Georgie

Hello and welcome to Real Easy English, where we have real conversations in easy English to help you learn. I'm Georgie.

Becca

And I'm Becca. You can find a video version of this podcast on our website and test yourself with a worksheet on bbclearningenglish.com.

Georgie

Hello Becca. How are you?

Becca

I'm really well, thank you, Georgie. How about yourself?

Georgie

Yes, I'm good, thank you. Are you having a busy week?

Becca

It has been a little bit busy, but also quite fun. How about yours?

Georgie

Me too. I've had a busy week, but it's going well. And Becca, today we're talking about work. We're going to talk about what we're good at, at work, and also what we do when things go wrong.

Becca

Ooh. OK.

Georgie

So, what do you like about work?

Becca

I like that we have different tasks to do in the day, and some of them are creative, and then other tasks you really need to, kind of, put more thought and focus into.

Georgie

Becca, do you ever find work stressful?

Becca

Of course. I think that you will find work stressful at some point during your job or your career. Yeah, I think if I haven't planned things well – if I haven't done the preparation well – then I find things a bit stressful.

Georgie

Yeah.

Becca

How about yourself?

Georgie

Yeah, me too. When we have lots of projects as well, I feel like when we have a lot of things going on, it can be stressful to, kind of, juggle different tasks. And when we need to publish a new podcast or a new video series, it can be... there can be a lot of pressure to get things done.

Becca

So, would you say that you're someone who gets stressed easily at work? Because you seem to be quite calm all the time.

Georgie

Yeah. No, I don't actually get too stressed very often. Even when there's a bit of pressure at work, I tend to stay quite calm. I always just think, there's no point in worrying. Worrying doesn't actually fix the issues. And you can only do what you can do. So, yeah, I tend to stay quite relaxed. What about you? Do you get quite stressed or...

Becca

Yeah, as I previously mentioned, I think if... I'm usually quite an organised person but, you know, there are some times where I feel a bit disorganised. And if I don't prepare, I find myself in stressful situations and I might start feeling a bit nervous, especially as time gets closer to completing something. I really don't like having things late.

Georgie

Yeah.

Becca

Not just in work, but in my general life.

Georgie

So, you get nervous if you're not feeling organised. But are you good at being organised?

Becca

Yes. If I write things down, then I tend to stay organised. It's likely that I won't feel very stressed. I can start to relax a bit when I know that, you know, I've ticked things off my list. Do you write to-do lists?

Georgie

I do. I do write to-do lists. And that can be really helpful to, kind of, keep calm because you have your whole plan on a page that you can see. And you can, kind of, know where you are in your week, which is really helpful.

Becca

Yeah.

Georgie

What happens when things go wrong at work? What... how do you, kind of... how do you deal with these situations?

Becca

Well, I've only been here for a little while in comparison to yourself and the rest of the team. And I feel really thankful that you're all very supportive. So, if I do have something that I haven't quite finished, or I'm not really sure what I'm doing with it, or it just goes completely wrong, then I feel that I can come to yourself or any of the team to ask for a little bit of help or guidance.

Georgie

Oh, that's good! I don't think anything's gone completely wrong since you've been here.

Becca

Not yet... Audio listeners – fingers crossed!

Georgie

Fingers crossed! OK. Let's recap the language we heard during the conversation, starting with stress. Now, stress is a feeling of worry, usually caused by a particular situation. And you can describe a person as being stressed, and that is the feeling of having stress. And we can also say stressful, which describes the situation.

Becca

We also had calm, and that's when you don't feel stressed or worried about something. For example, Georgie is always very calm at work.

Georgie

We also heard nervous, which describes someone who worries a lot.

Becca

We had organised – someone who is organised plans very well and prepares very well. The opposite of organised is disorganised.

Georgie

And we heard supportive, and if someone is supportive, they help other people.

Becca

That's it for this episode of Real Easy English. We'll be back next week with another easy English conversation.

Georgie

And if you want more easy English, head to our website to try some of our other easy series – for example, the London Letter Challenge. Go to our website, bbclearningenglish.com.

Becca

Goodbye for now!

Georgie

Bye!